- 1 Patrick O Meere of Dromcleave in co. Clare, gent.

Donogh O Meere was seised of the town and 7 qrs. of Dromcleave, and being so seised granted a yearly rent of 13s.9d. out of each of 4 qrs. to the See of Killaloe.

About 27 years since, one William Torongood, by the Commandment of Donogh late Earl of Thomond whose lands adjoined the said 7 qrs. entered therein and thrust out the said Donogh O Meere and his family. After the death of said Donogh, suppliant as his son and heir petitioned the Lord Viscount Wentworth Lord Deputy and the case was referred to the justices of assize. The Earl of Thomond disclaimed inheritance of the land, alleging it to belong to the See of Killaloe. Now Lewis, Lord Bishop of Killaloe has made an estate of the same to Boetius Clancy of Knockfin and Robt. Coppinger of Kellon, Esqrs. to the use of the Court of Thomond.

it was likewise found that the said Teige at the time of his killing was seised of the said castle, town and 4 qrs. of Oghery, which was inserted by the 'indirect means and sinister practice' of Edmond O Hallorane now or late of Gallway merchant, whereas suppliant's father was seised of the said 5th part at the time of the killing of the said Teige & suppliant was seised thereof at the time of the taking of the said office. After which the said lands were granted by L.P. of the late K. James to Sir Henry Pierce and his heirs or to one that assigned his estate to him: and suppliant and his coheirs were legally admitted to their traverse of the said office and it was ordered by the Court of Exchequer that they should continue in possession till the said traverse was ended. And suppliant and his coheirs appointed the said Edmond O. Halloran their attorney to prosecute the same in the said Court of Exchequer, freely giving to the said Edmond all such costs and charges as were necessary. The said Sir Henry Pierce, as well as of a remorse of conscience that he had of the right of suppliant and his coheirs, as also in pursuance of an order conceived by the late Lord Chichester, then Lord Deputy, that he was well pleased that suppliant and his coheirs should have the lands, paying to the said Sir Henry some small consideration in money towards his costs: the said Sir Henry, about 14 years past, conveyed the said castle, town and lands of Oghery to the said Edmond. Yet, notwithstanding the offer by suppliant and his coheirs of all moneys and costs expended by the said Edmond, he has retained possession himself during the past 13 years, and has made divers estates thereof to Nicholas Lynch fits Jonickyne of Gallway, to overthrow an office taken for her majesty of divers lands belonging to them and to suppliants.
