Kilkee Civic Trust has produced this pamphlet to give some information on the men whose names are on the memorial stone in the grounds of Kilkee Catholic Church. The short biographical details will in the future be enhanced by a new booklet when further information comes to hand. We would appreciate if anyone who notices an error or omission in this pamphlet contacts us to rectify it.

We are very grateful for the assistance and expertise of the many people who helped us in compiling the present list and also to the people who gave financial contributions without whose support this memorial would not have been possible.

The co-operation of the Kilkee parish in allowing the memorial on its property is greatly appreciated.

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
and in the morning
we will remember them.
