

The History of the Ennis Lawn Tennis & Badminton Club

The Ennis Lawn Tennis and Badminton Club was established in 1982. It was the culmination of talks that led to the amalgamation between the run down Tennis Club and the thriving Badminton Club.

The cost for the work needed to develop the entire site was estimated at £98,000, an enormous sum at the time. The developments included:

- Buying the stone from the mill next door which was about to be knocked down. This stone was used to elevate the site which flooded every winter, and create a new car park.
- Building a new clubhouse with 2 badminton courts, dressing rooms, showers, toilets and a gallery overlooking the courts.
- Constructing 2 new hard tennis courts with new fencing and floodlights.
- Building perimeter fencing with a gate for security.

This work was completed in Nov. 1983, and another hard court was installed in 1984. The club flourished in both tennis and badminton. In junior badminton it produced many internationals with Donie O'Halloran going on to become a Senior International. There were and are still many social events, competitions and tournaments.

In the early 90's the landscaping was completed and floodlights were installed on court 3.

In Jan. 1994 there was severe flooding in Ennis. All 3 tennis courts were submerged and water lapped up to the clubhouse door. A storm also damaged the west wall of the hall

It was decided to build two state of the art artificial grass courts (4 & 5), with floodlights and drainage, twenty eight inches above the existing car park, at a cost of £66,000 Euro. These were completed in 1995.

In 1997 the original courts 1, 2 & 3 were elevated to the same level as the new ncourts 4 & 5, with a green acrylic surface, and by 2002 these were also covered with artificial grass. The entire cost of developing the 5 courts was 250,000 Euro. There have been many improvements since and the club has currently 400 members.

1982 Fergus LTC

Committee

President Rev Sean Moriarty, Vice President Oliver Moylan, Roger Fox, Kieran Tuohy, Michael White

Mens Champion Gerry Bredin

Ladies Champion Mimi Conroy

Major events

Oliver Moylan and the Chamber of Commerce raise approx £1,000 for the Tennis Club. This provided funds to repair the nets and fencing, cut the grass regularly on the P & P course, and provide a caravan to be used as a changing room.

The 2 hard tennis courts along with the 9 hole course were renovated. Subs £6 Adult membership, £10 Family and £3 Junior.

Oliver Moylan hands over the keys of the caravan to the President Rev Sean Moriarty. The cost of repairing the old Pavilion would have been £2,000.

Trustees of the Tennis Club met with the Chamber of Commerce and Rotary members , on how to revitalize the Club. A special committee was set up to build a new clubhouse and sports complex (including squash), but only one badminton court. A possible link to the Ennis Badminton Club was proposed. Meetings were held with Tom Eade, Gerry Bredin and Mick Molloy of the Ennis Badminton Club.

In September Rev Sean Moriarty told the Badminton Club that the Tennis Club does not wish to amalgamate. However in October the Tennis Club asks the Badminton Club to join them on an equal basis.

Rev Sean Moriarty bites the bullet and goes for the merger. He was concerned that the Badminton would take over and that the tennis would disappear. He need not have worried. In 1982 he was transferred to Co. Offaly after being in Clarecastle fo 18 years. He became an Honorary Life member of the Club in 1982 and used to regularly visit the Club. In 1995 he blessed the new omnicourts. He returned again in 2000 for the Fergus LTC reunion. He passed away in 2005. He was the Mens Singles Tennis Champion in 1948, 1956, 1965, 1973 and 1975. The Club will be eternally grateful to this amazing man.

A £9,000 grant was approved by Clare County Council. Planning Permission approved for new clubhouse

Tennis Club Championships and tournaments back again. The last Pitch and Putt competition is held.

Agm July 18th 1994. Subs. Membership at a record level

At the July AGM it was proposed

- To build 2 new Omnicourt grass tennis courts in the car park at a cost of £46,500.
- Floodlights for the new Courts 4 & 5 (£6,500)
- The installation of floodlights on Court 3 with improvements to Courts 1 & 2 (£4,500)
- The refitting of the old kitchen to provide a bar
- A tarmacadamed car park

In Aug 94 the clubhouse drains are connected to the town sewage, as the existing septic tank lies beneath the proposed Omnicourts. (cost £2,000). Ducting for floodlights on the new courts £1,500.

Sept 94 Floodlights for Court 3 £4,500. A new window is installed overlooking courts 4 & 5 .

Feb 1995 Worst flooding in Ennis for decades. All tennis courts flooded with 2 feet of water. Flooding stops at clubhouse door. The planned height of the new courts is raised another 28 inches.

3 Trustees retire Johnny Flynn, Brian McMahon and Niall McMahon. Kevin Vaughan has passed away. These are replaced by Gerry Bredin, Ger Browne, Pat Cassidy and Isobel O'Dea. The other Trustees are David Williams (who took over from his father JW Williams), Oliver Moylan, Joe Molony, F McInerney, T Mannion and Tom Eade

A very successful Club Lotto is set up and organized by Gerry Sadlier. It ran weekly from Aug 94 to March 95. It made nearly £8,000 in profit. Over 13,000 numbers were sold.

Table Quizes, Golf Classics (profit £2,740), Race Nights (Profit £2,000) etc are run by the Club to raise funds

£27,000 raised by club members in 6 months . The rest is borrowed from the AIB.

Negotiations are held with the bank to reduce interest rate on existing loan. The repayments are reduced to such an extent that even with the new borrowing (£23,000) the repayments are less than before and there is also an income of over £4,000 in court fees from the new courts.

The new 4 & 5 Omnicourts are opened in May 1995

A huge Open Tennis and Badminton tournament is held to celebrate the opening of the new courts.

94/95 Income £38,280 . St Francis Credit Union make a contribution for the new courts.

Tennis Success For Ennis Players

Ennis tennis club members achieved major success at the annual South of Ireland open senior tennis championships of the Limerick Lawn Tennis Club last week. History was made in the ladies A singles when thirteen year old Emma Tierney from Ennis won the title. Prior to this, fourteen year old Annie Heffernan from Tipperary was the youngest winner of the title. Emma will be competing in a variety of junior calendar competitions during the coming weeks and, on the evidence of last week's performance, further successes are expected. Canadian native, Travis McDonagh successfully defended the men's A singles crown and he also added the doubles crown this year. Two other Ennis players, David Chelvey and Hugh Mc Grath, reached the C doubles semi-final.

SPORTS STARS OF THE MONTH

Hayes of Ennis Ltd has teamed up with The Clare People for the 2007 Sports Star of the Month Awards - a scheme that will culminate at the end of the year with a Sports Star of the Year. The overall winner, chosen by the general public and The Clare People's sports team will have the use of a Mitsubishi car for 2008. Underneath are the award winners for the first six months of the year.

< January - Ciara Pender

It mightn't get the headlines on a regular basis, but Ciara Pender has been doing her best to promote the sport of badminton to as wide a group of people as possible. In January she represented Ireland in the under 17 Quadrangular tournament in Wales against Scotland, Wales and England. It was the fourth successive year she was selected for the national side and for the past few years her achievements have been largely impressive. Regularly making the latter stages of tournaments in both the singles and doubles sections, she took top spot in the under 17 Sligo Open Championships when she beat Krom Rooney in the final. She was also the only Munster representative on the Irish team in January and is considered to be one of the brightest prospects in Irish badminton.

April - John Kirby >

It was a quality month for Clare handball and John Kirby's achievement in taking the national title in the Diamond Masters A Singles at Moycullen tops the list. The veteran handballer from a clan with huge handball links, had another title to his name and proved he has the desire for more. There were more Clare celebrations the same weekend when O'Connell's Mills doubles pair Cooney and John Cooney scooped the Under 21 doubles section. They had a hard earned victory over Mayo's Dara Reid and Cliona Butler but it was Kirby who really rolled back the years. He beat Roscommon's Pat Clarke in the final by 21-7, 21-17. Clare's handballers still weren't finished though, as at the same venue Louise Hayes of Thomagreeny put in a superb show in the All-Ireland Junior Ladies singles final but narrowly missed out winning the match.

Strong showing from Ennis in Galway Open

THE Galway Open tennis competition was held in great weather. Eight Ennis Club members took part in the competitions and Joachim Pinto was the most successful, reaching the final of the B division. Dave Keane and Rossa Flanagan were beaten in the semi-final of the B doubles after beating clubmates Joachim and Dan Constantinescu in the quarters. Claire Duffy was beaten in the semi-final of the B plate and Aileen Duffy was beaten in the final of the same plate competition.

Junior tennis

FOR the first time in many years, the Ennis juniors (U-16) entered the Munster Sunshine Cup. They beat Rusbroom, Cobb, in the quarter-final, winning three of their singles and two mixed double matches. They then went on to beat St Anne's, Waterford, in the semi-final, winning all their singles matches before losing out to a very strong Sunday's Well team in the final. The team members were Tara d'Arcy, Alice Twomey, Grace d'Arcy (captain), John O'Brien, Eoin Power and David Reidy.

The U-13s and U-16s Community Games teams beat Cralloe recently and will now represent Clare in the Munster finals to be held in July. The U-13 team members are Amy McNamara, Ali McCarthy, Meghan Fletcher, Nathan d'Arcy, Conor Power and Stephen Keane. The U-16 team members are Jimmy Akintola, Alice Twomey, Olena Ochinnikova, John O'Brien, Eoin Power and David Reidy.
